Name:_____Date:_____Period:_____

Community Evaluation

1. Describe some benefits of the school garden that you can share with others.

2. Give examples of how you can inform people about the benefits of your garden in an engaging way.

3. Describe how you participated in your school garden community outreach event.

4. Give examples of data you can collect to measure the impact of a community outreach event.

5. Present an assessment your school garden event based on data and your personal impressions.

6. Why is it important to share the benefits of your garden with others in your community?

.